Mr. Irving P. Margulies
General Counsel of the
United States Department of Commerce
Washington, D.C. 20230

Dear Mr. Margulies:

Your letter of 28 February 1984 was greatly appreciated. We clearly are of one mind on the mutual benefit in continuing to send you supergrade officers

We eagerly anticipate [redacted] return in May and we have begun the search for a successor. Dick Kerr, CIA's Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence, will work closely with [redacted] in identifying suitable candidates and, with my approval, forwarding their resumes for your consideration.

The Director and I regard the opportunity to send one of our officers to Commerce in this capacity as an important one. You may be certain we will take a personal interest in the selection process.

Sincerely,

/S/ John N. McMahon
